

London non-storage projects

For the Andover Estate project, our proposed solution was to design and implement a number of bespoke variations of the widely-utilised metroSTOR PBM Bin Storage Housing model, located at ...

NLA has revealed the shortlisted ideas that reimagine London with innovative, community focussed visions to tackle some of London's most pressing challenges including accessibility and ...

Occupier demand for open storage sites will remain strong throughout 2024 despite the overall subdued outlook for economic growth, buoyed by its broad occupier base and concentration in expanding ...

A Pre-Demolition Audit conducted by BRE found The Regent's Park Store Yard capable of achieving 95% diversion from landfill target. This would also meet the London Plan Policy D3 ...

One possible way to utilise "empty London" is the increasing number of "meanwhile" projects -- schemes for the temporary use of buildings and land until a permanent role has been ...

One possible way to utilise "empty London" is the increasing ...

Interim Spaces is one of the UK's leading providers of truly affordable, flexible and sustainable workspace. An impact-focused interim use specialist led by arts professionals, our work unlocks ...

Backyard pergolas, polished plaster, curved joinery and pastel colours were all in evidence in the extensions and refits now in contention for the New London Architecture (NLA) Don't ...

Fews are the leading provider of temporary buildings in London and we operate nationwide. A cost-effective, flexible solution tailored to your project.

Street Storage provides a safe place for people to keep their possessions - at no cost to them - allowing them to be free from the stigma that often follows them, making it easier for them to access services, ...

Discover how The Utilize Project is revolutionizing London's urban landscape with meanwhile use and learn about some exciting meanwhile projects that are transforming the city.

London non-storage projects

Web: <https://www.ovalventures.co.za>

